

Oxford County Advertiser.

FRIDAY, APRIL 16, 1886.

(Entered as second class matter.)

A nickel will buy the RAVENS PATHEFRONT, containing three slides of all New England roads, and "no ads."

Wm. H. Pearson of Locke's Mills has some splendid red raspberry and strawberry plants for the spring setting. They are true to name and will be sold cheap. For full particulars write to him.

The spring term of the Bridgton Academy will commence April 27th. Those desiring to attend a good school should investigate the merits of this school. Read ad elsewhere.

WEST PARKS.

The spring so far is cold and chilly. J. Wayland Kimball has been stopping here a few days looking after his chair business. He seems full of hope and courage and talks lots of business. From what I can learn he intends to bring his entire business to this place. He wants the citizens to build him another building 100x40 two stories high and he will build one 20x20 three stories high. It is an object for our citizens to give generous encouragement to a business enterprise of this kind for a business when once established is of untold benefit to our place and vicinity. Mr. Kimball pays his help every Saturday night.

The Universalist society have some encouragement of getting Rev. F. Houghton to preach at our place a part of the time this summer and fall.

Elizabeth Swan is very low. There is but little if any hopes of her recovery. Roscoe Telford informs me that he is in hopes to put in the foundation to the Butter Factory next week. Business promises good this year.

There are eight bicycles owned by young men of this place. Erastus Cummings has opened a confectionery store in the place of the old post-office.

S. B. Locke, esq., I learn will go to New York next week to attend the great auction sale of Jersey cattle. He says he will bring home some fine Jerseys.

FIREBURN.

David Sawyer, a well known and respected citizen of this village, died Friday night after a brief illness of pneumonia. The funeral services on Monday were conducted by Rev. M. B. Greenhalgh of the M. E. church. By the death of Mr. Sawyer an opening is made for a first-class shoemaker of good character.

Russell Page and Abbie Page are visiting in Malden, Mass. Edward Flint of Bethel is canvassing this place for a patent earthen cooking rack.

N. O. McFarlane is contemplating building a dwelling house on Main St. near Mr. Richardson's new place.

The Swedenborgian Circle met at Mrs. Howe's Friday evening. Repairs are being made on the interior of the Congregational church, during the absence of Dr. Mason.

The Freeburg Temperance Assn. held a meeting at the Swedenborgian church Sunday evening.

Col. A. A. Gibson has presented the Swedenborgian church with a fine Meane bell in memory of his wife, Mrs. Sarah Knowles Gibson. It was put in position Tuesday.

Mrs. Towne is suffering severely from neuritis.

Mrs. Almon Howell is sick with rheumatic fever.

Mrs. A. M. Foss after a long and severe illness is convalescent and able to ride out. Mrs. Foss's health is improving.

Mrs. A. M. Foss is agent for the Europa Mower. The farmers call this the best machine out.

Cyrus Ramsdell has a calf about three months old and is girls is 3 ft. 10 in. Took out your calves.

S. K. Keene has bought five leathers of good breeds of Mr. Erelch of Auburn, making in all eleven cows.

Master Frankie J. Keene has a pair of well trained calves as taken by snell.

Arthur Lowell has taken widow Snell's farm.

Emory Young has moved to Poland.

Thomas Burditt of Chase's Mills is doing a large business in his hub mill. His team handled all the winter from Monday to Friday.

Martin & Stevens had a small sugar camp at their sugar camp a few days since. All agree that they had a picking good time and will go again if they have an invitation, provided said Martin & Stevens will fill up the holes near the camp.

FORSTER.

We are in the midst of our spring break. On the main roads the snow is getting thin and wheels go better than runners. On the cross roads and in the districts the snow is all the way from three to six feet deep, and this is no light snow either.

That robin the bird was inquiring about in last week's ADVERTISER came to Porter looking around for a suitable building spot and seems well pleased with a site near E. T. Hattfield's the maples.

The assessors have made their annual trip. George E. Stacy and Samuel Stanley doing the business.

N. S. Pugsley has gone to Boston to look for a new place.

Millie Fugleberg and her sister Aveline have been to the power of speech, or saving anything for some time. He is at this time much better and it is hoped that he may entirely recover. In response to messages his son and daughter came at once from Cumberland Mills, the improvement in his condition was so rapid, however that they made but a brief stay.

Extensive preparations are being made for the entertainment to be given at this place on Thursday evening, Apr. 22nd, as a complimentary benefit to Mr. F. C. McGrath. The program will be new and interesting, consisting of minstrelsy, vocal and instrumental music, etc., and a series of the whole to conclude with a social hop with music by the veteran violinist, Steve Lewis, with piano and cornet. Below are the principal features of the evening's entertainment—Part 1st, Grand parade minstrel show, songs, Will Haynes, Lumb, F. C. McGrath, Interceptor, Mel Moore, New and popular songs and the latest jokes will be introduced. Part 2d, Mr. McGrath will appear in some entirely new songs and the management confidently expects to be able to present Miss Brown of Bridgton, the pleasant and very successful elocutionist. Also Jubilee songs by a male quartette, to conclude with the laughable farce, "The Hibernian Babies." The entertainment will be strictly first-class and a full house is anticipated. Popular prices, 10c and 15c.

We called to-day upon a very remarkable old gentleman who lives in the upper village in the person of Oliver Porter, long resident of Waterford and now in his 84th year. He is very hale and hearty, and the village to his house, some distance, in this last traveling as quickly as any man of one fourth his age.

He is hale and hearty, telling me that he had not missed a meal for the whole winter, neither has he felt any weakness, neither has he been in bed, and he would not miss a day of his life. He is a firm believer in spiritualism and is a forcible writer on the subject as other subjects including temperance.

News reached here on Sunday last of the death of Hon. Eldridge Gerry of Portland, formerly of this town.

The infant daughter of Chas. Foggy of Boston, died last week and was brought here for burial, which took place on Friday last.

EAST FERRY.

Freel Health of N. H. will work for Rufus Griffith this season on the farm.

G. T. Piper's crew have been running the mill this week saving out shingles to shingle their new sheds; they will begin sawing Birch the 12.

Mrs. W. L. Jones is poorly, she has had a narrow escape from pleurisy fever. She has been confined to the house for about six months, but now is gaining slowly.

E. M. Howard is saving shingles in his mill.

A petition is in circulation for a new road to be laid out between Geo. Dwyers and Geo. Thomas and to strike the road leading from the Worthyford pond to Canton, by the Alf Packard farm. This road is much needed and has been talked of a long while. If the town cannot agree as to the road it will be left with the County Commissioners. The termination of the road will be near the so called Ripley mill, which is in good order and good size for the manufacture of birch for squares. Within three miles the mill there is probably more than 4,000 cords of birch.

W. B. ALBANY.

Mrs. Gilbert Wardwell is much better and able to ride out.

Mrs. Caled Walker has had an attack of paralysis and one side is very much affected. Most hopes of her recovery.

Wilson Lawrence, a former resident of this town, is a business man who once established is of untold benefit to our place and vicinity. Mr. Kimball pays his help every Saturday night.

The Universalist society have some encouragement of getting Rev. F. Houghton to preach at our place a part of the time this summer and fall.

Elizabeth Swan is very low. There is but little if any hopes of her recovery. Roscoe Telford informs me that he is in hopes to put in the foundation to the Butter Factory next week. Business promises good this year.

There are eight bicycles owned by young men of this place. Erastus Cummings has opened a confectionery store in the place of the old post-office.

S. B. Locke, esq., I learn will go to New York next week to attend the great auction sale of Jersey cattle. He says he will bring home some fine Jerseys.

The spring term of the Bridgton Academy will commence April 27th. Those desiring to attend a good school should investigate the merits of this school. Read ad elsewhere.

Wm. H. Pearson of Locke's Mills has some splendid red raspberry and strawberry plants for the spring setting. They are true to name and will be sold cheap. For full particulars write to him.

The Swedenborgian Circle met at Mrs. Howe's Friday evening. Repairs are being made on the interior of the Congregational church, during the absence of Dr. Mason.

The Freeburg Temperance Assn. held a meeting at the Swedenborgian church Sunday evening.

Col. A. A. Gibson has presented the Swedenborgian church with a fine Meane bell in memory of his wife, Mrs. Sarah Knowles Gibson. It was put in position Tuesday.

Mrs. Towne is suffering severely from neuritis.

Mrs. Almon Howell is sick with rheumatic fever.

Mrs. A. M. Foss after a long and severe illness is convalescent and able to ride out. Mrs. Foss's health is improving.

Mrs. A. M. Foss is agent for the Europa Mower. The farmers call this the best machine out.

Cyrus Ramsdell has a calf about three months old and is girls is 3 ft. 10 in. Took out your calves.

S. K. Keene has bought five leathers of good breeds of Mr. Erelch of Auburn, making in all eleven cows.

Master Frankie J. Keene has a pair of well trained calves as taken by snell.

Arthur Lowell has taken widow Snell's farm.

Emory Young has moved to Poland.

Thomas Burditt of Chase's Mills is doing a large business in his hub mill. His team handled all the winter from Monday to Friday.

Martin & Stevens had a small sugar camp at their sugar camp a few days since. All agree that they had a picking good time and will go again if they have an invitation, provided said Martin & Stevens will fill up the holes near the camp.

FORSTER.

We are in the midst of our spring break. On the main roads the snow is getting thin and wheels go better than runners. On the cross roads and in the districts the snow is all the way from three to six feet deep, and this is no light snow either.

That robin the bird was inquiring about in last week's ADVERTISER came to Porter looking around for a suitable building spot and seems well pleased with a site near E. T. Hattfield's the maples.

The assessors have made their annual trip. George E. Stacy and Samuel Stanley doing the business.

N. S. Pugsley has gone to Boston to look for a new place.

Millie Fugleberg and her sister Aveline have been to the power of speech, or saving anything for some time. He is at this time much better and it is hoped that he may entirely recover. In response to messages his son and daughter came at once from Cumberland Mills, the improvement in his condition was so rapid, however that they made but a brief stay.

Extensive preparations are being made for the entertainment to be given at this place on Thursday evening, Apr. 22nd, as a complimentary benefit to Mr. F. C. McGrath. The program will be new and interesting, consisting of minstrelsy, vocal and instrumental music, etc., and a series of the whole to conclude with a social hop with music by the veteran violinist, Steve Lewis, with piano and cornet. Below are the principal features of the evening's entertainment—Part 1st, Grand parade minstrel show, songs, Will Haynes, Lumb, F. C. McGrath, Interceptor, Mel Moore, New and popular songs and the latest jokes will be introduced. Part 2d, Mr. McGrath will appear in some entirely new songs and the management confidently expects to be able to present Miss Brown of Bridgton, the pleasant and very successful elocutionist. Also Jubilee songs by a male quartette, to conclude with the laughable farce, "The Hibernian Babies." The entertainment will be strictly first-class and a full house is anticipated. Popular prices, 10c and 15c.

We called to-day upon a very remarkable old gentleman who lives in the upper village in the person of Oliver Porter, long resident of Waterford and now in his 84th year. He is very hale and hearty, and the village to his house, some distance, in this last traveling as quickly as any man of one fourth his age.

He is hale and hearty, telling me that he had not missed a meal for the whole winter, neither has he felt any weakness, neither has he been in bed, and he would not miss a day of his life. He is a firm believer in spiritualism and is a forcible writer on the subject as other subjects including temperance.

News reached here on Sunday last of the death of Hon. Eldridge Gerry of Portland, formerly of this town.

SOUTH WATERFORD.

Freel Health of N. H. will work for Rufus Griffith this season on the farm.

G. T. Piper's crew have been running the mill this week saving out shingles to shingle their new sheds; they will begin sawing Birch the 12.

Mrs. W. L. Jones is poorly, she has had a narrow escape from pleurisy fever. She has been confined to the house for about six months, but now is gaining slowly.

E. M. Howard is saving shingles in his mill.

A petition is in circulation for a new road to be laid out between Geo. Dwyers and Geo. Thomas and to strike the road leading from the Worthyford pond to Canton, by the Alf Packard farm. This road is much needed and has been talked of a long while. If the town cannot agree as to the road it will be left with the County Commissioners. The termination of the road will be near the so called Ripley mill, which is in good order and good size for the manufacture of birch for squares. Within three miles the mill there is probably more than 4,000 cords of birch.

W. B. ALBANY.

Mrs. Gilbert Wardwell is much better and able to ride out.

Mrs. Caled Walker has had an attack of paralysis and one side is very much affected. Most hopes of her recovery.

Wilson Lawrence, a former resident of this town, is a business man who once established is of untold benefit to our place and vicinity. Mr. Kimball pays his help every Saturday night.

The Universalist society have some encouragement of getting Rev. F. Houghton to preach at our place a part of the time this summer and fall.

Elizabeth Swan is very low. There is but little if any hopes of her recovery. Roscoe Telford informs me that he is in hopes to put in the foundation to the Butter Factory next week. Business promises good this year.

There are eight bicycles owned by young men of this place. Erastus Cummings has opened a confectionery store in the place of the old post-office.

S. B. Locke, esq., I learn will go to New York next week to attend the great auction sale of Jersey cattle. He says he will bring home some fine Jerseys.

The spring term of the Bridgton Academy will commence April 27th. Those desiring to attend a good school should investigate the merits of this school. Read ad elsewhere.

Wm. H. Pearson of Locke's Mills has some splendid red raspberry and strawberry plants for the spring setting. They are true to name and will be sold cheap. For full particulars write to him.

The Swedenborgian Circle met at Mrs. Howe's Friday evening. Repairs are being made on the interior of the Congregational church, during the absence of Dr. Mason.

The Freeburg Temperance Assn. held a meeting at the Swedenborgian church Sunday evening.

Col. A. A. Gibson has presented the Swedenborgian church with a fine Meane bell in memory of his wife, Mrs. Sarah Knowles Gibson. It was put in position Tuesday.

Mrs. Towne is suffering severely from neuritis.

Mrs. Almon Howell is sick with rheumatic fever.

Mrs. A. M. Foss after a long and severe illness is convalescent and able to ride out. Mrs. Foss's health is improving.

Mrs. A. M. Foss is agent for the Europa Mower. The farmers call this the best machine out.

Cyrus Ramsdell has a calf about three months old and is girls is 3 ft. 10 in. Took out your calves.

S. K. Keene has bought five leathers of good breeds of Mr. Erelch of Auburn, making in all eleven cows.

Master Frankie J. Keene has a pair of well trained calves as taken by snell.

Arthur Lowell has taken widow Snell's farm.

Emory Young has moved to Poland.

Thomas Burditt of Chase's Mills is doing a large business in his hub mill. His team handled all the winter from Monday to Friday.

Martin & Stevens had a small sugar camp at their sugar camp a few days since. All agree that they had a picking good time and will go again if they have an invitation, provided said Martin & Stevens will fill up the holes near the camp.

FORSTER.

We are in the midst of our spring break. On the main roads the snow is getting thin and wheels go better than runners. On the cross roads and in the districts the snow is all the way from three to six feet deep, and this is no light snow either.

That robin the bird was inquiring about in last week's ADVERTISER came to Porter looking around for a suitable building spot and seems well pleased with a site near E. T. Hattfield's the maples.

The assessors have made their annual trip. George E. Stacy and Samuel Stanley doing the business.

N. S. Pugsley has gone to Boston to look for a new place.

Millie Fugleberg and her sister Aveline have been to the power of speech, or saving anything for some time. He is at this time much better and it is hoped that he may entirely recover. In response to messages his son and daughter came at once from Cumberland Mills, the improvement in his condition was so rapid, however that they made but a brief stay.

Extensive preparations are being made for the entertainment to be given at this place on Thursday evening, Apr. 22nd, as a complimentary benefit to Mr. F. C. McGrath. The program will be new and interesting, consisting of minstrelsy, vocal and instrumental music, etc., and a series of the whole to conclude with a social hop with music by the veteran violinist, Steve Lewis, with piano and cornet. Below are the principal features of the evening's entertainment—Part 1st, Grand parade minstrel show, songs, Will Haynes, Lumb, F. C. McGrath, Interceptor, Mel Moore, New and popular songs and the latest jokes will be introduced. Part 2d, Mr. McGrath will appear in some entirely new songs and the management confidently expects to be able to present Miss Brown of Bridgton, the pleasant and very successful elocutionist. Also Jubilee songs by a male quartette, to conclude with the laughable farce, "The Hibernian Babies." The entertainment will be strictly first-class and a full house is anticipated. Popular prices, 10c and 15c.

We called to-day upon a very remarkable old gentleman who lives in the upper village in the person of Oliver Porter, long resident of Waterford and now in his 84th year. He is very hale and hearty, and the village to his house, some distance, in this last traveling as quickly as any man of one fourth his age.

He is hale and hearty, telling me that he had not missed a meal for the whole winter, neither has he felt any weakness, neither has he been in bed, and he would not miss a day of his life. He is a firm believer in spiritualism and is a forcible writer on the subject as other subjects including temperance.

News reached here on Sunday last of the death of Hon. Eldridge Gerry of Portland, formerly of this town.

WATERFORD.

Freel Health of N. H. will work for Rufus Griffith this season on the farm.

G. T. Piper's crew have been running the mill this week saving out shingles to shingle their new sheds; they will begin sawing Birch the 12.

Mrs. W. L. Jones is poorly, she has had a narrow escape from pleurisy fever. She has been confined to the house for about six months, but now is gaining slowly.

E. M. Howard is saving shingles in his mill.

A petition is in circulation for a new road to be laid out between Geo. Dwyers and Geo. Thomas and to strike the road leading from the Worthyford pond to Canton, by the Alf Packard farm. This road is much needed and has been talked of a long while. If the town cannot agree as to the road it will be left with the County Commissioners. The termination of the road will be near the so called Ripley mill, which is in good order and good size for the manufacture of birch for squares. Within three miles the mill there is probably more than 4,000 cords of birch.

W. B. ALBANY.

Mrs. Gilbert Wardwell is much better and able to ride out.

Mrs. Caled Walker has had an attack of paralysis and one side is very much affected. Most hopes of her recovery.

Wilson Lawrence, a former resident of this town, is a business man who once established is of untold benefit to our place and vicinity. Mr. Kimball pays his help every Saturday night.

The Universalist society have some encouragement of getting Rev. F. Houghton to preach at our place a part of the time this summer and fall.

Elizabeth Swan is very low. There is but little if any hopes of her recovery. Roscoe Telford informs me that he is in hopes to put in the foundation to the Butter Factory next week. Business promises good this year.

There are eight bicycles owned by young men of this place. Erastus Cummings has opened a confectionery store in the place of the old post-office.

S. B. Locke, esq., I learn will go to New York next week to attend the great auction sale of Jersey cattle. He says he will bring home some fine Jerseys.

The spring term of the Bridgton Academy will commence April 27th. Those desiring to attend a good school should investigate the merits of this school. Read ad elsewhere.

Wm. H. Pearson of Locke's Mills has some splendid red raspberry and strawberry plants for the spring setting. They are true to name and will be sold cheap. For full particulars write to him.

The Swedenborgian Circle met at Mrs. Howe's Friday evening. Repairs are being made on the interior of the Congregational church, during the absence of Dr. Mason.

The Freeburg Temperance Assn. held a meeting at the Swedenborgian church Sunday evening.

Col. A. A. Gibson has presented the Swedenborgian church with a fine Meane bell in memory of his wife, Mrs. Sarah Knowles Gibson. It was put in position Tuesday.

Mrs. Towne is suffering severely from neuritis.

Mrs. Almon Howell is sick with rheumatic fever.

Mrs. A. M. Foss after a long and severe illness is convalescent and able to ride out. Mrs. Foss's health is improving.

Mrs. A. M. Foss is agent for the Europa Mower. The farmers call this the best machine out.

Cyrus Ramsdell has a calf about three months old and is girls is 3 ft. 10 in. Took out your calves.

S. K. Keene has bought five leathers of good breeds of Mr. Erelch of Auburn, making in all eleven cows.

Master Frankie J. Keene has a pair of well trained calves as taken by snell.

Arthur Lowell has taken widow Snell's farm.

Emory Young has moved to Poland.

Thomas Burditt of Chase's Mills is doing a large business in his hub mill. His team handled all the winter from Monday to Friday.

Martin & Stevens had a small sugar camp at their sugar camp a few days since. All agree that they had a picking good time and will go again if they have an invitation, provided said Martin & Stevens will fill up the holes near the camp.

FORSTER.

We are in the midst of our spring break. On the main roads the snow is getting thin and wheels go better than runners. On the cross roads and in the districts the snow is all the way from three to six feet deep, and this is no light snow either.

That robin the bird was inquiring about in last week's ADVERTISER came to Porter looking around for a suitable building spot and seems well pleased with a site near E. T. Hattfield's the maples.

The assessors have made their annual trip. George E. Stacy and Samuel Stanley doing the business.

N. S. Pugsley has gone to Boston to look for a new place.

Millie Fugleberg and her sister Aveline have been to the power of speech, or saving anything for some time. He is at this time much better and it is hoped that he may entirely recover. In response to messages his son and daughter came at once from Cumberland Mills, the improvement in his condition was so rapid, however that they made but a brief stay.

Extensive preparations are being made for the entertainment to be given at this place on Thursday evening, Apr. 22nd, as a complimentary benefit to Mr. F. C. McGrath. The program will be new and interesting, consisting of minstrelsy, vocal and instrumental music, etc., and a series of the whole to conclude with a social hop with music by the veteran violinist, Steve Lewis, with piano and cornet. Below are the principal features of the evening's entertainment—Part 1st, Grand parade minstrel show, songs, Will Haynes, Lumb, F. C. McGrath, Interceptor, Mel Moore, New and popular songs and the latest jokes will be introduced. Part 2d, Mr. McGrath will appear in some entirely new songs and the management confidently expects to be able to present Miss Brown of Bridgton, the pleasant and very successful elocutionist. Also Jubilee songs by a male quartette, to conclude with the laughable farce, "The Hibernian Babies." The entertainment will be strictly first-class and a full house is anticipated. Popular prices, 10c and 15c.

We called to-day upon a very remarkable old gentleman who lives in the upper village in the person of Oliver Porter, long resident of Waterford and now in his 84th year. He is very hale and hearty, and the village to his house, some distance, in this last traveling as quickly as any man of one fourth his age.

He is hale and hearty, telling me that he had not missed a meal for the whole winter, neither has he felt any weakness, neither has he been in bed, and he would not miss a day of his life. He is a firm believer in spiritualism and is a forcible writer on the subject as other subjects including temperance.

News reached here on Sunday last of the death of Hon. Eldridge Gerry of Portland, formerly of this town.

WATERFORD.

Freel Health of N. H. will work for Rufus Griffith this season on the farm.

G. T. Piper's crew have been running the mill this week saving out shingles to shingle their new sheds; they will begin sawing Birch the 12.

Mrs. W. L. Jones is poorly, she has had a narrow escape from pleurisy fever. She has been confined to the house for about six months, but now is gaining slowly.

E. M. Howard is saving shingles in his mill.

A petition is in circulation for a new road to be laid out between Geo. Dwyers and Geo. Thomas and to strike the road leading from the Worthyford pond to Canton, by the Alf Packard farm. This road is much needed and has been talked of a long while. If the town cannot agree as to the road it will be left with the County Commissioners. The termination of the road will be near the so called Ripley mill, which is in good order and good size for the manufacture of birch for squares. Within three miles the mill there is probably more than 4,000 cords of birch.

W. B. ALBANY.

